

“Building a community that values, empowers, and supports seniors, persons with disabilities, and their caregivers”

Help Finding Services
Information & Assistance Specialist
(920)448-4300

Are you looking for help with housekeeping, bathing, yard work, transportation, housing--- all those things that help you stay independent and living where you want to live? Are you a caregiver looking for answers, help, and stress relief? Information & Assistance Specialists listen to your unique situation, focusing on identifying needs, preferences, and support--both personal and financial. They will gather information about your options, including potential funding sources, and help sort through these options, so that you can make decisions that are right for you.

Money Matters
Elderly and Disability Benefits Specialist
(920) 448-4300

Benefits Specialists help relieve financial stress. They explain how to apply for various types of benefits, help with the paperwork, assist with the application process, and act as an advocate on your behalf.

Give Back
Volunteer Opportunities
(920)448-4300

Make a difference in someone’s life and give back to the community. We offer volunteer opportunities for you to share your gifts and talents.

Food 🍴 Meals
Nutrition Program - Dining Sites - Home Bound Meals
(920)448-4300

Socialize and enjoy a hearty lunch at a dining site. For homebound seniors or adults with disabilities who qualify, lunch can be delivered to your home. Nutrition consultation from a Registered Dietitian is also available.

Recreation, Health & Wellness
(920)448-4300

Add LIFE to your years! You will find a variety of programs to improve your health and increase your vitality. Connect with friends, make new ones, and learn something new! Add “Laughter, Independence, Friends & Energy “ to your Life.
