

Youth Gardening Awards

sponsored by

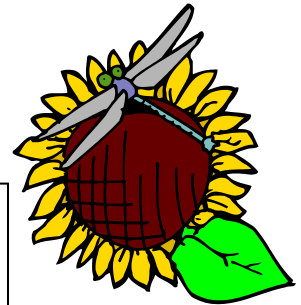

The Gardeners Club of Green Bay

Eligibility: Any youth between the ages of 6 to 18 from the northeastern Wisconsin area who has tended the growth and development of a sunflower or pumpkin during the current growing season.

Large Produce Weigh-in
Green Bay Farmers Market
September 25, 2010, 8-11 a.m.

Large Pumpkin and Sunflower
Weigh-in, Green Bay Farmers
Market, October 16, 2010, 8-11 a.m.

Harvest Banquet Awards Night
Hotel Sierra
November 13, 2010

Three Awards for the largest pumpkins (by weight) and three awards for the largest sunflowers (measured across the diameter of the seedhead) are as follows:

- First place award is a certificate and a $100 U.S. Series EE savings bond.
- Second place award is a certificate and a $75 U.S. Series EE savings bond.
- Third place award is a certificate and a $50 U.S. Series EE savings bond.

Note: The winners must have a social security number to meet the requirement for the purchase of a savings bond.

Tristen Stevens
223.5 lbs.
2008 1st Place Winner

Olivia and Ryan Buss
107.5 lbs.
2008 2nd Place Winners

Free 'Atlantic Giant' pumpkin seeds (limited supply) are available from the Brown County Agriculture and Extension Service Center, 1150 Bellevue St., Green Bay, WI 54302 (920-391-4615)

For more information, please contact:

Doris and Gary Wheelhouse
Youth Gardening Committee
N7303 Meadow Lane
Crivitz, WI 54114
920-737-9672
doriswheelhouse43@msn.com

Local Web site: <http://home.roadrunner.com/~gardenersclub>
National Web site: <http://tgoa-mgca.org>