L.H. Barkhausen Waterfowl Preserve is a 1,000+ acre Brown County Park located on the west shore of Green Bay. One of the oldest waterfowl preserves in Wisconsin this public natural area has a rich cultural and natural history.

Within the park numerous wetlands, hardwoods, and prairie areas that provide habitat for a variety wildlife and plants. With over nine miles of trails for hiking, cross country skiing, and snowshoeing there is sure to be something for everyone to enjoy.

Barkhausen offers year-round environmental education programs for schools, scouts, and families. Within the park the West Shore Interpretive Center has hands on displays including native live animals.

L.H. Barkhausen continues to have an important role in education and environmental preservation in Green Bay.
