Community Grief Support / Bereavement Counseling

What is community grief support?

Hospice agencies provide free grief support to everyone in the community. For extra support after the death of a loved one, call the agencies above to learn about the different options available (i.e. one-on-one vs. support groups, home visits vs. office visits).

What are the eligibility requirements?

No requirements, and do not need to be using hospice services.

Is insurance billed for this service?

Nothing is billed to insurance and a doctor referral is not required.
