with in advance. For purposes of this policy, personal references are construed to mean references that do not speak to the candidate's work performance or specific service to the County, but rather the candidate's personal characteristics, educational background, and personal dealings with the referring employee. The referring employee assumes all liability for the content of the personal reference response. Employees found violating this policy shall be subject to discipline, up to and including termination from employment. Employment verification requests shall be referred to the Human Resources Department and include the same authorization requirements as listed above. In return for these services, these employees may take time off when the workload of their department permits.

OVERTIME AND COMPENSATORY TIME

4.57 POLICY. (1) Each position is designated as either Non-exempt, Partially Exempt or Exempt from the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act and state wage and hour laws. Employees in non-exempt positions shall be compensated or receive compensatory time at a rate of one and one-half times normal pay for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in any work week. Per FLSA, some exceptions to the 40 hours per week standard apply under special circumstances to Partially Exempt employees. All time worked is subject to rounding rules.

(2) All overtime or compensation time must be authorized by the Department Head or supervisor and is subject to budgetary limitations. Any paid or unpaid leave will not count as hours worked for overtime or compensatory time calculations. All overtime and compensatory time accruals will be reviewed periodically by the Human Resources Manager. Overtime shall be kept to a minimum and shall be utilized to relieve specific occasional peak workloads or for work necessity, and is not intended as a convenience or benefit for the employee.

(3) No employee may start work before the appointed time, work through breaks, or work past the appointed time without prior authorization. Employees are not allowed to accumulate work hours more than 15 minutes before their appointed starting time, during breaks, or 15 minutes past the appointed quitting time.

Accumulation of compensatory time shall not exceed eighty (80) hours during each calendar year, and shall not be accumulative from year to year. All compensatory time shall be taken at a time which is mutually agreeable between the employee and the Department Head or supervisor. Compensatory time shall not be taken for more than one week at a time.

(2) Exempt employees are paid on a "salary basis." Being paid on a "salary basis" means an employee regularly receives a predetermined amount of compensation each pay period. The salary paid by Brown County to salaried employees is specifically intended to compensate for their service to the County. Subject to limited exceptions, an exempt employee receives their full salary for any work week in which the employee performs any work, regardless of the number of days or hours worked. However, such salary includes requiring the employee to charge his/her absences to paid leave accruals.

(3) Exempt employees who are absent from the work place for part of a week and do not have enough accrued leave to cover the absence, shall not have their salaries reduced for that portion of the absence that is not covered by paid leave.

4.92 TIMELINES AND GRIEVANCES.

The Grievance must be in writing and must be filed with Human Resources and with a copy to the department director. The Grievance shall contain a clear and concise statement of the pertinent facts, the dates the incidents occurred, the identities of the persons involved, and documentation related to the Grievance in possession of the Grievant, all reasons why the actions of the administration should be overturned, and the remedy that should be issued. A Grievance alleging a workplace safety issue shall also identify the workplace rules allegedly violated, if applicable.

Administrative Response: The Human Resources Manager, or other administrator appointed by the County Executive, shall meet with the Grievant within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the written Grievance to discuss voluntary resolution of the Grievance. The written response shall contain a statement of the date the meeting between the administrative officer and the Grievant occurred, the decision to sustain or deny the Grievance, and the deadline for the Grievant to appeal the Grievance to an Impartial Hearing Officer.

Impartial Hearing Officer: The decision of the Administrative Officer shall be final unless the Grievant files a written appeal requesting a hearing before an Impartial Hearing Officer. The Administration may advance a Grievance to the next step at the written request of either the Grievant or the Administration. The timelines may be modified by mutual agreement of the Grievant and Administration. The failure of the Grievant to follow the timelines and other requirements in

In cases involving allegations of workplace safety, the conciliation meeting shall be mandatory and shall occur not more than ten calendar/working days after assignment to the Impartial Hearing Officer. The Impartial Hearing Officer's involvement in any conciliation process shall not disqualify the Impartial Hearing Officer from hearing the merits of any Grievance unless all parties agree to replacing the Impartial Hearing Officer.

Representation: The Grievant shall have the right to representation during the Grievance Procedure at the Grievant's expense. The representative shall not be a material witness to the dispute. The County Executive, within his sole discretion, may assign responsibilities to administer this grievance procedure to the department head of Human Resources, its legal advisor, Corporation Counsel, or other administrative officers. Upon mutual agreement the employee and the department head of Human Resources may extend or waive any time limits contained in this procedure. Nothing contained herein shall diminish any legal rights an employee may be entitled to under the law.

4.101 DECLARATION OF POLICY. The observance of high moral and ethical standards by its employees is essential to the conduct of free government. The employee holds his or her position as a public trust, and any effort to realize personal gain through official conduct is a violation of that trust. It is the County's policy to recognize that employees retain their rights as citizens to interests of a personal or economic nature. Standards of ethical conduct for employees need to distinguish between those minor and inconsequential conflicts which are unavoidable in a free society, and those conflicts which are substantial and material. The ethical standards set forth in this chapter for employees in the performance of their official duties are intended to avoid conflicts of interest between their personal interests and their public responsibilities, improve standards of public service, and promote and strengthen the faith and confidence of the people of this County in their county civil service.

4.102 CONFLICT OF INTEREST.
